Delivery Vehicle Fee to be Collected at All VIPA Seaports November 1st

Virgin Islands Port Authority Executive Director Carlton Dowe informs the public that delivery service vehicle fees will be charged at all Port Authority seaports throughout the territory effective Tuesday, November 1.

Dowe said that the fee is included in the Port Authority's marine rates and charges schedule. According to the tariff, delivery service pick-up trucks, vans, SUVs or similar size vehicles per vehicle are charged $100 annually or $5 per day, and large trucks or similar size vehicles excluding cargo containers are charged $200 annually or $15 per day (see page 11 of attached tariff). VIPA's board has directed that the fee be collected at all of VIPA's marine ports. Regular users of VIPA's marine facilities throughout the territory have been notified of the implementation of the fee, said Dowe.

For more information, please contact VIPA's marine offices: (340) 774-2250 on St. Thomas/St. John and (340) 778-3131 on St. Croix.
