Celebrity Summit to Make Unexpected Call to St. Croix Today

The Virgin Islands Port Authority received notice today that Celebrity Summit has diverted from Antigua and will visit St. Croix instead. The ship is expected to arrive at 11 am at the Ann E. Abramson Marine Facility in Frederiksted today, said VIPA's Acting Executive Director David W. Mapp. The time of departure was not provided, he added. "The Summit was scheduled for repairs earlier this month and was forced to cancel its call to St. Croix, so this unexpected diversion is a welcome one for the Port Authority and the tourism-related business on the island."

The Summit is a millennium-class ship with a capacity of 2,158 passengers and 999 crew.
