Celebrity Summit Repairs Causes Ship to Cancel Call to St. Thomas

The Virgin Islands Port Authority has received notice that the Celebrity Summit has cancelled its April 14th call to the Austin “Babe” Monsanto Marine Terminal at Crown Bay, St. Thomas. VIPA’s Acting Executive Director Donna Frett-Gregory said that the ship’s agent reported that the Summit will be undergoing emergency repairs and will be unable to visit St. Thomas. The agent notified VIPA last week that the Summit was cancelling its scheduled April 9th call to St. Croix for the same reason, Frett-Gregory added.

The Summit is a millennium-class ship with a capacity of 2,158 passengers and 999 crew.
